These Prices (deduced upon the supposition that the dividends on the different Stocks are all payable at the same time) must be subject to some variation in favour of those Stocks upon which the Dividends soonest become due: for instance, a person making a purchase in September, had better buy into the Consols at 82 $\frac{1}{2}$ than into the New Fours at 110, because the Dividends on the former Stock become due in October, while those on the latter will not become due until the January following.—Nor must it be forgotten, that the possibility of a Reduction of Interest in some of these Securities; and of the paying off of others, considerably affect their Prices in the Market.

1. When there has been no particular storm about the time of the Spring equinox (March 21),—if a storm arise from the east on or before that day, or if a storm from any point of the compass arise near a week after the equinox, then, in either of these cases, the succeeding summer is generally DRY, four times in five.
2. But if a storm arise from the S. W. or W. S. W. on or just before the Spring equinox, then the Summer following is generally WET, five times in six.

and the two mares, the Ravens - beneath criticism 24 Friday ~~~~ Dreadful heat. Neipperger much better dressed than before but his looks are already altered - as she sits up again and is quite immovable. They all went to Cannstatt but I and Pauline remained at home. I tried to utilize my time and to write or compose - but it seems the flow of ideas is interrupted by want of exercise and nothing but the most common 24	Monday	No letter of Adeline at which I am rather surprised, and rejoiced. My watch stopped at 5.10 minutes. Spent the whole day in running from shop to shop and begging for Christmas. West sent me a turkey from the report which was been in Banklands with a very kind letter written to Adeline about Capt. West. - He is called - Father a young friend of Julius. My son!

Notes and Reminders

Performances of Meliora in the Evening which went most splendidly. The Chorus admirably together. At last a long letter of notice by which all my fears are dissipated - Every body well. - Got a ticket for Schoeller who came after the performance, and slept at Manchester for keeping me up until 9 o'clock. - If I look back to the past Year I find, that there were a few bright Moments, but that dulness prevailed in the greater part of it, and that I never was so idle in the pursuit of my Art than in 1855 - my whole exertions limiting themselves to an Italian Song with Orchestra, a Reffairments of an old Pamphlet Piece with Receipt and a Motet for Harp - nice exhibition of our Year's labour - Altogether I am displeased with myself and my want of proper energy to try and get on, having also lost a considerable sum by foolish speculation and the loss of my Pocket book. - At the end of the Year, by the Arrival of Mad. Bodschmidt I have been stirred up a little and have to thank a merciful Providence for keeping my dear Children in good health, during all this time.
Invited at Sloane's where I did not
